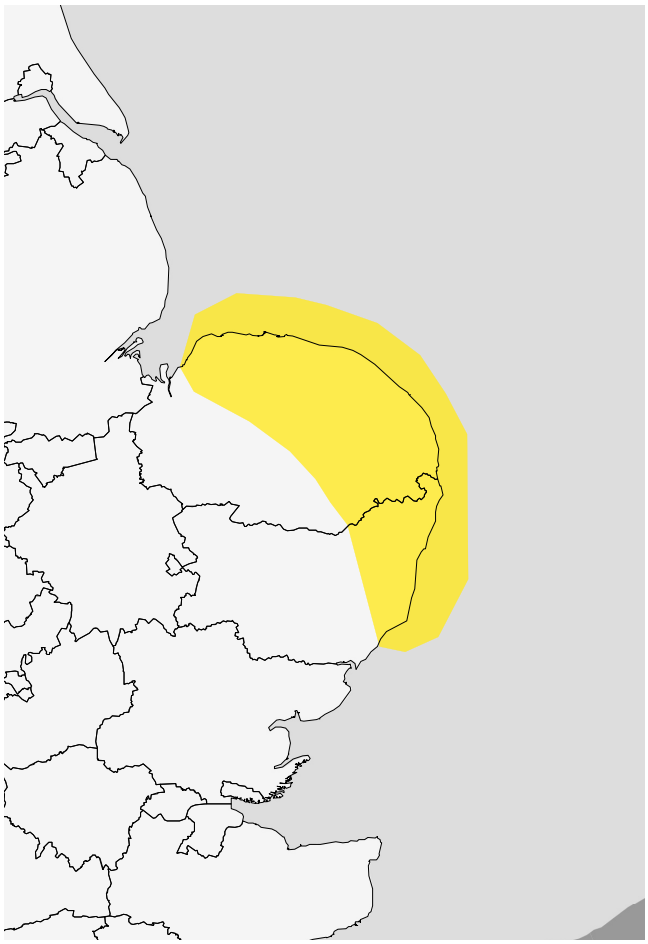
Yellow warning
Wind

Between
05:00 Mon 10 Jun 2024 and
11:00 Mon 10 Jun 2024



A brief spell of unseasonably strong north to northwesterly winds may lead to some disruption to travel.

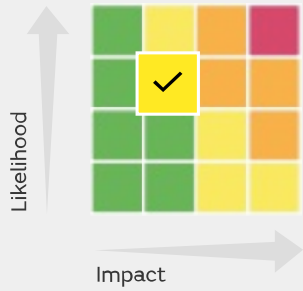
What to expect

- Some delays to road, rail and ferry transport are possible
- Probably some bus and train services affected, with some journeys taking longer
- Delays for high-sided vehicles on exposed routes possible

Further details

A brief spell of strong north to northwesterly winds will move east across Eastern England this morning, particularly affecting North and East Norfolk and East Suffolk, with gusts of 35-45 mph inland and around 50 mph near the coast. With trees in full leaf, these gusts may be strong enough to bring down a few branches or trees.

What should I do?
Give yourself the best chance of avoiding delays by checking road conditions if driving, or bus and train timetables, amending your travel plans if necessary.



✓ Medium likelihood of low impacts
